

Directions to Various Area Sites

Although there are many possible routes to the various CRIEPI sites, directions and the times required are provided here for a typical route starting from Tokyo Station. For other possible routes, consult with staff members at the various sites or with a travel agency. The trip from Narita International Airport to Tokyo Station takes about one hour on the JR Narita Express train.

Head Office (about 8 minutes)

From Tokyo Station, take the Marunouchi Subway Line to Otemachi Station. Exit C leads directly to the Otemachi Bldg. where our Head Office is located. Alternatively, the Otemachi Bldg. is an 8-minute walk from the North Exit of Tokyo Station.

Komae Area (About 1 hour)

From Tokyo Station, take the Chuo Line for about 14 minutes to Shinjuku. From Shinjuku, take an express train on the Odakyu Line. At Seijogakuen-mae Station, switch to a local train on the same line for Kitami Station. From Shinjuku to Kitami, it takes about 25 minutes. From Kitami Station, it is about a 10-minute walk.

Abiko Area (About 1 hour)

From Tokyo Station, take either the Yamanote Line or Keihin-Tohoku Line to Ueno Station and then change to the Joban Line for Abiko. CRIEPI is about 7 minutes from the North Exit by taxi, or about a 20-minute walk.

Yokosuka Area (About 1 hour and a half)

From Tokyo Station, take the Yokosuka Line to Zushi, which takes about 1 hour. Take either Bus No. 5 bound for Nagai or Bus No. 6 bound for Yokosuka Shimin Byoin, and get off at the Kashima bus stop (about 40 minutes). By taxi, the trip from Zushi Station is about 30 minutes.

Akagi Testing Center (About 2 hours)

From Tokyo Station, take the Joetsu Shinkansen Line to Takasaki, and change to the Ryomo line for Maebashi. It is about 40 minutes by taxi from Maebashi Station.

Shiobara Testing Yard (About 2 hours)

From Tokyo Station, take the Tohoku Shinkansen Line to Nasushiobara. It is about 20 minutes by taxi from Nasushiobara Station.